FT 1000: Europe's Fastest Growing Companies

Gigas, in the Top 1000 of European fastest growing companies, according to the Financial Times

The Spanish cloud computing company sees its model recognized and repeats in the prestigious ranking developed by the media

Gigas (GIGA.MAB), a Spanish multinational specialized in cloud computing services, has been recognized for the second consecutive year as one of the fastest growing companies in Europe, according to the Financial Times report FT1000, 2018.

This ranking, developed by UK's media leader, compiles the 1,000 companies that have shown a better annual performance in recent years, among 31 European countries. For the second consecutive year, Gigas appears in the ranking, sharing recognition, with another 133 Spanish companies of which more than 10% are technological, a sector that remains the driving force of the economy and competitiveness in Europe.

Diego Cabezudo, CEO of Gigas, commented: "It is a recognition of the effort, dedication and commitment, with which our team works every day and he are truly honored." "A distinction that will serve to continue betting on technology and innovation, and to reinforce our commitment to excellence, technological development and, above all, to our customers," he said.
